IV. Special Presentations

Wyoming High School Goals Presentation – Mr. Stallings and Mrs. Meibers shared 22-23 Goals and Actions for Wyoming High School. In Teaching and Learning, WHS will build upon MTSS monitoring and focus on student data through Tier 1 instruction. WHS will also use data collection to focus on instructional best practices in target areas to demonstrate ownership of student learning and ensure teacher-led instruction is differentiated. In Climate and Culture, WHS participated in a first semester book study to drive engagement in positive conversations about building culture and will continue work on the R Factor. Related to student culture and belonging, WHS continues to build a safe environment that focuses on student needs and positive values through PBIS (Pride) lunches, mentoring program, welcome wagon committee, and other initiatives. In Social Emotional Well-Being, WHS continues to work on building resilience in students through Flex opportunities and through implementing SEL strategies from student voice/feedback. In Communication, WHS has several rhythms of weekly communication to staff and families that support communication structures.

Wyoming Middle School Goals Presentation – Mrs. Klein and Mr. Hicks shared 22-23 Goals and Actions for Wyoming Middle School. In Teaching and Learning, WMS will continue the work of curriculum mapping and improved use of MAP, RRA and OST data to identify areas of student achievement and growth. WMS will also build upon MTSS by establishing clear goals for implementation of Tier 1 activities and also provide training and support through instructional coaching. In Climate and Culture, WMS will engage in R Factor training and participate in a book study of Culturize. In Social Emotional Well-Being, WMS will use a universal mental health screener to identify students with mental health needs and also participate in professional development in the use of trauma informed practices. In Communication, WMS has several rhythms of weekly communication to staff and families that support communication structures.

Mr. Thomas left the zoom at 8:34 a.m.

Mr. Feldmeier left the meeting at 8:58 a.m.

Wyoming Primary Schools Goals Presentation – Mrs. Kirchner and Mrs. Keen shared 22-23 Goals and Actions for Wyoming Primary Schools. In Teaching and Learning, the Primary team will develop a standards-based report card for each grade level and develop an implementation plan for communication with families. The Primary team will also shift to structured literacy by providing a clear vision for literacy instruction and offering comprehensive professional development to equip teachers with best practices in literacy instruction. In Climate and Culture, Primary will continue with One Primary, One Book with this year’s book being The Circles Around Us, lead a Culturize book study for staff, continue R Factor training, and add to Family Engagement nights by adding a winter program. In Social Emotional Well Being, Primary will continue with Cowboy Counselor time, Tier 2 and 3 counseling groups, participate in professional development in the use of trauma informed practices, and use an SEL screener and diagnostic tool to inform groupings. In Communication, Primary has several rhythms of weekly communication to staff and families that support communication structures.
