

5th & 6th Grade:

Social Studies Resources

Discover:

Brainpop: These videos and activities connect directly to 5th & 6th grade Social Studies and are great places to start. If you want to try other topics, remember the username is wyommiddle; password is cowboys:

Ancient Culture

Greek Gods

Maya Civilization

SUMMER 2020

EXPLORATION
& EXTENSION
RESOURCES

Education.com's Fifth Grade Social Studies Printables - This is a great site for maps & writing about social studies (printable and selectable by grade level).

Liberty's Kids History Channel - Start with the Boston Tea Party or those crazy Intolerable Acts.

PBS Learning Media - Immigration: Curious about the immigration debate? Get started here with opposing points of view. Then, try writing about immigration from your point of view.

Immigration Debate

Understanding Immigration Issues

PBS Learning Media - Modules for Social Studies - Check out these great video lessons on important events in America's history:

Freedom Rides of 1961

Unstoppable: The Road to Women's Rights

More Grade 5 & 6 Activities and Lessons

Virtual Museum Tours - Go to London, New York or Paris museums from the comfort and safety of home.

Play:

iCivics - Play games as you learn about government, elections, and immigration.